Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee

The Judicial Council of California's Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee makes recommendations to the council for improving the administration of justice in all cases involving marriage, family, or children. The committee is staffed by the Center for Families, Children & the Courts of the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), the council's staff agency.

Mission

The mission of the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee is to:

- Identify issues and concerns confronting judicial administration regarding family and juvenile law, procedure, and practice; and
- Address issues related to domestic violence, self-represented litigants, juvenile delinquency and dependency, adoption, and general family law.

Current Activities

On an ongoing basis, the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee:

- Reviews pending legislation regarding family and juvenile matters;
- Reviews suggestions from the public for improving the administration of family and juvenile cases and recommends appropriate action to the council or one of its committees; and
- Proposes to the council changes in rules, forms, and standards for family and juvenile cases.

Committee Structure

The committee is cochaired by Judge Jerilyn L. Borack, Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, and Judge Susan D. Huguenor, Superior Court of California, County of San Diego.
